THE COMMISSION'S MANDATE

The Manitoba Law Reform Commission is an independent agency of the Government of Manitoba established by The Law Reform Commission Act. The Commission's duties are to inquire into and consider any matter relating to law in Manitoba with a view to making recommendations for the improvement, modernization and reform of law, including:

- the removal of provisions of the law which are outdated or inconsistent;
- the maintenance and improvement of the administration of justice;
- the review of judicial and quasi-judicial procedures under any Act; and
- the development of new approaches to and new concepts of law in keeping with and responsive to the changing needs of society and of individual members of society.

MANDAT DE LA COMMISSION

La Commission de réforme du droit du Manitoba est un organisme indépendant du gouvernement du Manitoba, établi en vertu de la Loi sur la Commission de réforme du droit. La Commission a pour fonctions de faire enquête sur les questions se rapportant au droit manitobain et de les étudier en vue de faire des recommandations pour améliorer, moderniser et réformer le droit, et notamment en vue:

- de supprimer les dispositions du droit qui sont désuètes ou incompatibles;
- de soutenir et d'améliorer l'administration de la justice;
- d'examiner les procédures judiciaires et quasi-judiciaires prévues par une loi quelconque;
- d'élaborer de nouvelles méthodes et de nouveaux concepts de droit correspondant à l'évolution des besoins de la société.

A message from the President

As this will be the last Annual Report which I shall write as President of the Manitoba Law Reform Commission having tendered my resignation to the Minister of Justice and Attorney General effective June 30, 2005, it would be all too easy and tempting at such a time as this to become overly reminiscent. Therefore, I have decided to confine myself to just one high point and one low point which stand out in my memory over the 26 years that I have been privileged to preside over the Commission.

The high point was in April 1988 when I received a phone call from the then newly appointed Attorney General, the Hon. James C. McCrae, to return and take over the chair of the Commission which had been as good as abolished by the previous government. This was a high point both for me and the Commission because the Minister asked us to prepare new legislation which would set up the Commission as originally intended back in 1970 as a truly independent body with adequate resources and therefore with the ability to fulfil its original mandate of making recommendations for the improvement, modernization and reform of the laws of Manitoba. We were given the resources to carry out this mandate. I still remember the enthusiasm and zest with which we undertook this challenging task.

The low point came in March 1997 when I received a phone call out of the blue from the Deputy Attorney General stating that it was planned to repeal our governing legislation and dispense with the Commission and its staff at the end of June when funding would cease. This came as a terrific shock to me and I immediately set about taking steps to meet with both the Minister and members of the legal profession to see if the Commission could be retained in some viable form. The outcome of these labours was to some extent successful but also disappointing. The Commission was to be allowed to continue but would have to do so for the remainder of the fiscal year with funds remaining in its reserve fund. An annual grant of only $50,000 would then be provided in years to follow. The sections of the legislation which were repealed resulted in our inability to retain any permanent staff so that any research would have to be done on an ad hoc consultancy basis. However, the commissioners and I took this as a challenge to see what could be done with these limited resources and I believe we have proved that we have been able to continue to produce valuable recommendations for the improvement and reform of the laws of this Province.

Since 1997, I am glad to say that the Commission has continued to operate successfully largely due to the generous grants which we have received from the Manitoba Law Foundation coupled with some limited increases of our grant from the government.

I would like to pay tribute here to all the fellow members of the Commission and to our Administrator, Suzanne Pelletier, who over the many years that I have served as their chair have always worked with me most helpfully and cooperatively. Certainly we could not have achieved what we have done without the tremendous support and encouragement from everyone.

Thus, as I hand over this body to my successor, I trust that he or she will be able to obtain solid resources for the continuation of the work of reform of the laws of Manitoba which I continue to believe is a very important and necessary task.

Clifford H.C. Edwards, Q.C., President

PART I

INTRODUCTION

Some of our President's former students at the Faculty of Law would expect him to say something in Latin or at least refer to the Romans when reminiscing on the history of law reform. We believe that he would, therefore, just point out that law commissions are not mere creatures of modern times. Around 500 A.D., the then Roman Emperor, Justinian, appointed one of the earliest commissions. It was responsible for the eventual publication of the famous Institutes of Justinian (which Prof. Edwards studied as a first year law student) and ensured the immense prestige and continued influence of the Roman law to both the civil and common law systems to this day.

To clarify the law, Justinian appointed a commission headed by the jurist Tribonian. This commission collected and ordered all the constitutions promulgated since the time of Hadrian and published them as the Codex Justinianus (529). There followed the collection of opinions of the jurists, the Digest, or Pandects (533), and a general textbook of the law, the Institutes. Justinian's own legislation was collected in the Novellae (565). By this great work of codification Justinian assured for the Roman Law an immense prestige and far-reaching influence, ....<sup>1</sup>

In our view, law reform is a continuing process which cannot be allowed to disappear. Although the laws which our Commission has reviewed over the past 34 years have not always been "high profile", when our recommendations are implemented they do result in the elimination of outdated or redundant legislation and the implementation of new and improved legislation in keeping with the changing needs of society.

PART II

THE YEAR IN REVIEW April 1, 2004 to March 31, 2005

1. REPORT ISSUED

#110 - Substitute Consent to Health Care (October 2004)

The Commission recommends a number of steps that should be taken to overhaul Manitoba's laws relating to substitute consent to medical treatment. This Report complements the Commission's previous report on the withholding or withdrawal of life sustaining medical treatment.

Although The Health Care Directives Act permits people to designate proxies to make treatment decisions on their behalf in the event of incapacity, it appears that few people take advantage of this option. As a result, the Commission recommends that the Act be amended (with concomitant amendments to The Mental Health Act and The Vulnerable Persons Living with a Mental Disability Act) to include clear and consistent rules about who is authorized to make treatment decisions for persons who are unable to do so for themselves and who have not appointed a designated proxy. It sets out the hierarchy of persons from whom consent to treatment (or its withdrawal) should be sought in these situations; the qualifications and scope of authority of substitute decision makers; guidelines to be followed in making decisions, resolution of disputes among substitute decision makers and a review and appeal process.

The Commission also recommends that the Province undertake an on-going campaign of public education about the options available to deal with these decisions.

We believe that these recommendations will provide much-needed clarity and assistance to health care professionals, as well as to incapable patients and their families and friends.

The full Report and the Executive Summary can be found at our website at:
<http://www.gov.mb.ca/justice/mlrc/>

2. IMPLEMENTATION

In December 2004, the Minister of Justice and Attorney General introduced Bill 11, The Provincial Court Amendment Act (Justices of the Peace). It implements several of the recommendations contained in our Report on The Independence of Justices of the Peace and Magistrates (Report #75, August 1991). The term “magistrate” will be replaced with the term “justice of the peace”. Justices of the peace will be appointed based on recommendations of a nominating committee. They will be appointed during good behaviour and can only be removed after an independent review of their conduct. As stated in our Report, these proposals

. . . would effect significant changes in the status of justices of the peace in Manitoba. In part, they are aimed at ensuring that their status is consistent with the level of independence and impartiality mandated by the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. However, in some instances, they go beyond these minimum requirements and aim to build a system which will continue to deserve the confidence of the public. We believe that our justice system requires no less.<sup>2</sup>

We also understand that work is actively being undertaken on two of our reports: Wills and Succession Legislation (Report #108, 2003) and The Modern Portfolio Theory (Report #101, 1999). We hope that legislation will be introduced in the not too distant future. We have also asked the Minister to consider implementation of our recommendations on privity of contract (Report #80, 1993) and compensation for vaccine damaged children (Report #104, 2000).

3. CURRENT PROJECTS

A. Powers of Attorney

In recognition of the need to harmonize the laws of the western provinces in those areas where uniformity would be beneficial, the Alberta Law Reform Institute, the British Columbia Law Institute, the Manitoba Law Reform Commission and the Saskatchewan Law Reform Commission (the “Western Canadian Law Reform Consortium”) have agreed to work together on joint reform projects, the first of which focuses on enduring powers of attorney. Although most of the agencies have recently addressed powers of attorney, further study is required in respect of facilitating recognition of the document, clarifying the duties of attorneys and resolving issues facing persons interacting with attorneys.

<sup>2</sup>Manitoba Law Reform Commission, The Independence of Justices of the Peace and Magistrates (Report #75, 1991) 85.

A consultation paper was circulated and the Commission received five submissions which have been forwarded to the British Columbia Law Institute and will be considered by the project advisory committee in preparing the final report.

B. Private Title Insurance

This is a project of the Western Canadian Law Reform Consortium (the British Columbia Law Institute is not participating). This project overlays several large areas of law: land titles, surveys, municipal planning and insurance. The project also has to balance the interests of the various parties involved in real property conveyancing: vendors, purchasers, lenders and a range of professionals. In order better to understand those interests, the Commission informally consulted with stakeholders in the winter of 2004 following which the Commission's legal counsel prepared a draft discussion paper. The draft was then reviewed a number of times by the Commission as well as the project advisory group, comprising representatives of each of the participating law reform agencies (Ms Phillips and Mr. Bruce King). In November, 2004, the draft paper was sent to the Alberta Law Reform Institute for additional revision and production; however, completion of the paper has been delayed due to a number of developments in the industry. We hope to issue the paper in the 2005/2006 fiscal year.

C. Review of *The Garnishment Act

This project, a reference from the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, had been held in abeyance due to lack of funds. However, as a result of the moneys saved by the closure of our offices for the months of July and August, it was decided to seek the services of outside consultants to undertake the project. In September 2004, the Commission retained Messrs. James Edmond and Sacha Paul, Winnipeg practising lawyers with the firm of Thompson, Dorfman, Sweatman.

It was agreed that the project should encompass a review of The Garnishment Act of Manitoba and garnishment legislation in other Canadian jurisdictions as well as any relevant articles, case law and law reform publications. A draft paper, including possible options for reform, was completed in early January 2005 and circulated to members of the Commission for consideration. The members met in late January to review the paper and decisions reached at that meeting with respect to style and content were shared with the consultants. The consultants prepared a revised draft and met with members of the Commission in mid-February. Following the round-table discussion as to how the paper could be improved upon, it was agreed at that time that a further revised draft should be circulated to departmental staff engaged in the day-to-day operation of the garnishment process prior to the Commission reaching its final recommendations. We hope to receive feedback from these individuals early in the new year.

D. Court Costs

As noted in our last Annual Report, this project was referred to us by the Court of Queen's Bench Rules Committee and we have retained Jonathan Penner, an independent researcher, to undertake the project. In our review, we will consider the rules and process under which costs are awarded by courts in Manitoba. We hope to have a draft paper, setting out options for reform, ready for the Commission's consideration by the summer of 2005.

E. Common Building Schemes

This project was referred to the Commission by Mr. Edward Brown, a Winnipeg practising lawyer, some time ago, but we have just found the time and resources necessary to look at the issue during the last few months.

The Commission is considering an amendment to The Real Property Act to allow an owner of two or more parcels of land to register a scheme of building restrictions, by unilateral declaration, on title to all lots in the development prior to sale. We hope to complete this project early in the new year.

F. The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act Review

In May 2004, the Registrar General of The Property Registry brought to our attention a possible conflict which has arisen between section 4 of The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act and section 81 of The Real Property Act with respect to the entry of a trust on the land titles register. This occurred as a result of the implementation of an earlier recommendation in our Report on The Trust Provisions in The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act.<sup>3</sup> Prof. Irvine consulted with representatives of The Property Registry early in 2005 and we will review the issue in the coming year.

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

1. THE COMMISSIONERS

The current members of the Commission and their terms of office are as follows:

Commissioner	Affiliation	Term expires
Clifford H.C. Edwards	Dean Emeritus, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba	May 9, 2002
John C. Irvine	Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba	August 20, 2006
Gerald O. Jewers	Justice, Court of Queen's Bench	May 9, 2002
Kathleen C. Murphy	Practising lawyer	August 20, 2006
Alice R. Krueger	Lay member	April 3, 2005

The terms of office of Prof. Edwards and Mr. Justice Jewers continue in force until new appointments have been made or their terms have been extended through Order in Council.

Prof. Edwards is the President of the Commission. He has, however, submitted his resignation to the Minister and will be retiring on June 30, 2005. Prof. Edwards chaired the Commission from July 1979 until December 1986 and was re-appointed in July 1987 until the present. We will certainly include a very detailed overview of his work with the Commission in our next Annual Report. Suffice it to say at this time, that the task of finding a replacement will not be an easy one.

The Commission held 9 meetings during the past year. The members also met with the Minister of Justice and Attorney General and representatives of the Manitoba Law Foundation, The Law Society and the Faculty of Law, on September 2nd, 2004 to discuss the future of the Commission. Financial support was one of the main topics of discussion but no immediate solution came to light at that time.

2. STAFF

We continue to operate with what can only be described as the smallest possible staff. Sandra Phillips, our Legal Counsel, and Suzanne Pelletier, our Administrator, have managed the day-to-day operations for yet another year. Sandra is engaged full time and her work has been directed mostly to the Title Insurance project although she also provides assistance on all of our projects. Since December, she has concentrated her efforts on common building schemes. Suzanne, who is engaged part-time and continues to threaten retirement (but who has promised Prof. Edwards that she would not do so under his presidency), continues to deal with all financial and administrative issues as they arise.

Sandra requested and was granted a two month leave of absence without pay and, as a result, our offices were closed for July and August 2004.

3. CONSULTANTS

As noted above, Messrs. James Edmond and Sacha Paul, practising lawyers, were retained for the garnishment project and Mr. Jonathan Penner, an independent researcher, was retained on the court costs projects. In addition, Mr. Bruce King, practising lawyer, continues to assist on the private title insurance project; Mr. Rick Wilson, Registrar General, Messrs. Barry Effler and Russell Davidson, District Registrar and Senior Deputy District Registrar of the Winnipeg Land Titles Office, respectively, on both the private title insurance and common building schemes projects; and Mr. Edward Brown, practising lawyer, on the common building schemes project.

4. FINANCE

As noted above, Ms Phillips took a two month leave of absence last year; this provided us with some of the funds necessary to undertake the project on garnishment (a reference from the Minister). In addition, we were also fortunate once again to receive a $100,000 grant from the Manitoba Law Foundation. Unfortunately, the departmental grant remained at $70,000 plus $15,000 in-kind services for accounting services and office accommodation. As a result of our continued urging to the Minister that their contribution to the Commission's operations should be at least 50% of its total budget, we have now been informed that the Department's grant for the 2005-2006 fiscal year has been increased to $85,000 plus in-kind services of $15,000, for a total of $100,000. We are most grateful to the Minister for obtaining these additional funds for the coming year.

5. PUBLIC RELATIONS

Our Report on Substitute Consent to Health Care was released to the public in December 2004. Interviews were held with members of the media and an article appeared in the Winnipeg Free Press on December 15, 2004 outlining the report's major recommendations. We would also like to note, at this time, that our website has been improved to include the full text of our Reports from 1997 to date in PDF format as well as the Executive Summaries of these reports.

On June 24, 2004, Ms Phillips spoke to a group of elder care professionals at Lions Manor on the role and work of the Commission. At a November 2004 meeting of the Health Law Section of the Manitoba Bar Association, Ms Phillips participated in a panel discussion on do-not-resuscitate orders and the withdrawal of life support along with Lynne Arnason of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Manitoba and Dr. Mike Harlos of the St. Boniface General Hospital. She also attended a round-table discussion on proposed amendment of the Human Rights Code to include "social condition" as a prohibited ground of discrimination sponsored by the Manitoba Human Rights Commission in November 2004.

We continue to keep the profession abreast of the work of the Commission by submitting articles to Headnotes and Foot notes and also submit articles to Reform, a publication of the Australian Law Reform Commission which is distributed throughout the Commonwealth.

PART IV

CONCLUSION

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the Manitoba Law Foundation for its continued and generous support, especially in these last few years of stringent financial resources. The assistance and support we have received from the administrative staff of the Department of Justice, The Property Registry, the Faculty of Law and the Provincial Archives and Legislative Library are always greatly appreciated. We also wish to thank the Deputy Minister, Mr. Bruce MacFarlane, and Mary Miles in his office who has acted as liaison between the Commission and the Minister for the past year.

And lastly, we wish to thank the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, Hon. Gord Mackintosh, for always being available to discuss the needs of the Commission and for his endeavours in obtaining additional funds for us in the coming year.

This is a report pursuant to section 15 of The Law Reform Commission Act, C.C.S.M. L95, dated this 31st day of March 2005.

Clifford H.C. Edwards, President

John C. Irvine, Commissioner

Gerald O. Jewers, Commissioner

<sup>1</sup>In addition to its grant, the Department of Justice also provides the Commission with accounting services and office accommodation, a savings of approximately $15,000.

<sup>2</sup>As the last installment payment of $25,000 from the Law Foundation of Manitoba was not received until March 31, it has been carried forward to the 2005-2006 operating budget. In addition, at its February meeting, the Commission passed a motion to pay an additional $10,000 to the President in recognition of the many additional hours he has spent on directing our day-to-day operation and in view of the fact that he will be retiring as President on June 30, 2005. Payment of this honorarium was outstanding at March 31st, 2005. Also outstanding are the fees agreed upon with our consultant on the Court Costs project.
