PART I

INTRODUCTION

We noted in our last Annual Report that Prof. Edwards had submitted his resignation as President effective June 30th, 2005. Unfortunately, a replacement has not yet been found and, as a result, Prof. Edwards continues to serve for the time being. We have received assurances from both the Minister and his Deputy that the matter is being actively pursued. We hope that a new appointment will be forthcoming in the immediate future.

Prof. Edwards was appointed Chair of the Manitoba Law Reform Commission on July 1st, 1979 until the present with a short break in 1988. Needless to say, during that time, the Commission has been traveling a rocky road. The Commission was nearly abolished in 1987-88 and again in July 1997. In both those instances it survived due mainly to Prof. Edwards's driving force. Although now operating as a mere shell of its former self, its existence is certainly due to Prof. Edwards's never-ending commitment to law reform. He has spent the last 8 ½ years working at obtaining sufficient funds from the Manitoba Law Foundation and the provincial Department of Justice to allow the Commission to continue its operations. During that time, he has also cajoled many of his colleagues at the Faculty and as well as friends in other parts of the country to undertake projects for the Commission for paltry sums.

Although one of Prof. Edwards's major regrets on leaving the Commission is the lack of implementation of some of its more recent reports, during his chairmanship, the Commission submitted over 70 formal reports and several informal reports to the Minister of Justice. Of these, more than 80 percent have been implemented into legislation spanning a wide variety of topics including: political financing and voter registration, mechanics' liens, judgments and executions, wills and estates, conflict of interest, survivorship, administrative and trust law, the structure of the courts, family law, powers of attorney, regulating professions and occupations and the conduct of class proceedings, to name but a few.

He will be greatly missed and the task of finding a replacement has not been an easy one.

It is also with regret that we report that Suzanne Pelletier, our Administrator, retired on March 31st, 2006 after more than 35 years of faithful service with the Commission.

As Commission secretary and later administrator, Suzanne was efficient, diligent and competent. She has been the mainstay of the Commission, keeping everything (and everyone) going and on-track. Not only has her work been exemplary but her dedication to the many people she has worked with over the years has been truly remarkable.

Suzanne has been the heart and soul of the Commission, a friend and confidante to many and, as one former colleague says, the rare kind of fellow worker who stays in the memory years later as a warm and re-assuring presence. She kept the office running smoothly and took care of everyone, with patience, always with good grace and a great sense of humour.

It is no exaggeration to say that her loyalty and diligence in the face of numerous challenges has helped to keep the flame of law reform alive in Manitoba. Indeed, following the radical changes to the Commission in 1997, Suzanne continued for several years as the lone staff member and her background knowledge and experience have played a large role in the Commission's ability to function in its reduced state. We have been fortunate to have a person who has given dedicated service far beyond the call of duty of an administrator.

We are very grateful to Suzanne for her many years of outstanding service to the Commission and the people of Manitoba. We cannot be happy to lose her but we are happy for her as she begins her well-deserved retirement.

PART II

THE YEAR IN REVIEW April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006

1. REPORTS ISSUED

#111 - Costs Awards in Civil Litigation (September 2005)

The Commission undertook this project in response to a request from the Court of Queen's Bench Statutory Rules Committee.

In Manitoba courts, it is customary for successful litigants to be awarded partial indemnification for their legal expenses. Over time, however, the system for calculating the amount of such awards has ceased to bear much resemblance to the actual expenses incurred so that the level of indemnification achieved by the current tariff is extremely low. The Commission has made 15 recommendations which, it is hoped, will narrow the widening gap between actual expenses and costs awards.

Any system for awarding costs must balance a number of often contradictory goals. Most obviously, these include indemnification of successful litigants and deterrence of frivolous or unmeritorious litigation. Other goals include simplicity and clarity of the rules, encouragement of settlement, facilitation of access to justice and flexibility of implementation.

It is hoped that the Commission's recommendations, when adopted, will enable these disparate goals to be balanced more appropriately in Manitoba and perhaps serve as a model for other Canadian jurisdictions.

We are most grateful to Mr. Jonathan G. Penner, an independent researcher, for undertaking this project. As with other projects undertaken for the Commission by Mr. Penner, he has proved once again to be a valuable asset to us in reaching our final conclusions.

#112 - Review of The Garnishment Act (December 2005)

In response to a reference from the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, the Commission made 30 recommendations aimed at modernizing and improving the garnishment remedy in Manitoba. Garnishment is a process by which a creditor attaches money owed by a third person, such as an employer, to a debtor.

In the Commission's view, a just and efficient civil enforcement system requires balancing of competing goals and interests. Creditors need a fast, easy and inexpensive process to collect debts; debtors require protection from destitution; and everyone needs clear directions in order to fulfil obligations. To meet these needs, the Commission proposes legislative reform permitting garnishment of a broader range of the debtor's assets, such as monies in joint bank accounts and payments from registered pension plans, increasing the debtor's minimum monthly exemption and providing clearer instructions to all parties by updated and simplified legislative provisions.

In our view, implementation of these recommendations will result in an appropriate balance between fairness and efficiency and between the interests of debtors, creditors and others touched by the enforcement process.

We are most grateful to Messrs. James Edmond and Sacha Paul, practitioners in the firm of Thompson, Dorfman, Sweatman, who undertook this project and for their detailed and comprehensive analysis of the current law and suggestions for reform which were of great assistance in reaching our final conclusions. It should be noted, however, that the recommendations contained in the report are those of the Commission and are not necessarily in agreement with those of our consultants.

We also wish to thank representatives of the Family Law, Civil Litigation and Maintenance Enforcement Branches of the Department of Justice who met with members of the Commission to review proposed changes to the law and assisted us in reaching our final conclusions.

The full text and executive summaries of both of these Reports can be found on our website at <http://www.gov.mb.ca/justice/mlrc/>

2. IMPLEMENTATION

As mentioned in our last Annual Report, Bill 11, The Provincial Court Amendment Act (Justices of the Peace) was introduced in December 2004. The Bill received Royal Assent on June 9, 2005. It implements recommendations contained in Report #75, The Independence of Justices of the Peace and Magistrates (1991).

Although we continue to urge the Minister to implement our recommendations, especially those relating to wills and estates (Report #108, 2003), compensation for vaccine damaged children (Report #104, 2000), trusts (Report #101, 1999) and privity of contract (Report #80, 1993), no legislation has been introduced in these areas. Our concern over this lack of implementation was best described in the words of Mr. Justice Michael Kirby in December 2005. Justice Kirby was Foundation Chairman of the Australian Law Reform Commission, and during the decade he headed the organization, he pioneered law reform philosophies and practices that are now considered standard operating procedure for law reform agencies internationally. Commenting on the Australian Commission's work on the Human Genome Project, he stated:

When work of such quality can be done by law reformers ... we surely must know that we are on the right track. But all too often, law reform proposals go to the bottom of the ministerial and legislative pile.

They secure much less attention than the political ideas and personality and party schemes that dominate contemporary politics. Occasionally, law reform proposals are swiftly implemented. However, even areas in the most obvious need for attention, reform efforts sometimes lie fallow - not for reasons of political opposition but sheer indifference and institutional failure.<sup>1</sup>

3. CURRENT PROJECTS

A. Powers of Attorney

This is a joint project of the Alberta Law Reform Institute, the British Columbia Law Institute, the Manitoba Law Reform Commission and the Saskatchewan Law Reform Commission (the "Western Canadian Law Reform Consortium").

As stated in the Consortium consultation paper issued in April 2004 entitled Enduring Powers of Attorney: Areas of Reform,

Enduring powers of attorney are a useful planning tool for many Canadians. Reform initiatives must take into account the need to minimise complexity and costliness, keeping the enduring power of attorney as simple, private and user friendly as possible. At the same time, however, certain issues have arisen with regard to enduring powers of attorney which have negatively affected their usefulness for donors. The first of these is the problem of non-recognition, which may affect all powers of attorney but which is especially problematic for the donor of an enduring power of attorney who is now incapable. Second, misuse may result where an attorney does not understand the scope and nature of an attorney's duties. Lack of oversight where the donor is incapable increases the likelihood that misuse will go unchecked. Finally, third parties such as banks have indicated their concerns about how to proceed where an attorney's actions raise concerns about how an enduring power of attorney is being used.

<sup>1</sup>Comments of Justice M. Kirby, Sydney, Australia, at the launch of B. Opeskin and D. Weisbrot, The Promise of Law Reform (2005), a volume of specially commissioned essays from leading legal, political and academic figures around the world, published to mark the 30th anniversary of the Australian Law Reform Commission.

Written responses to the consultation paper were received by the participating agencies and the Alberta Institute also met with various stakeholders groups in Alberta. Following the close of consultations, the working group, comprised of Arthur Close, Q.C. and Laura Watts of the British Columbia Institute, Peter Lown, Q.C. and Sheryl Pearson of the Alberta Institute, Merrilee Rasmussen of the Law Reform Commission of Saskatchewan and our legal counsel, Sandra Phillips met several times by teleconference and once in Vancouver to formulate policy recommendations aimed at resolving problems described in the consultation paper or identified in the consultation process.

As new issues were identified during the consultation phase, the working group agreed to engage in further and more focused consultation, seeking the input of persons and organizations with expertise in dealing with enduring powers of attorneys. In Manitoba, representatives of the Public Trustee, Seniors and Healthy Aging Secretariat, the Manitoba Bar Association (Elder Law and Wills and Estates Sections), Community Legal Education Association, Alzheimer Society, Winnipeg Land Titles Office, Credit Union Central of Manitoba, Concordia Place, Winnipeg Regional Health Authority Palliative Care Subprogram, Lion's Manor, the Long Term Care Association and the Protection of Persons in Care Office attended two meetings in August and provided valuable comments on the proposed policy reforms. Taylor McCaffrey graciously lent us the use of their large boardroom for our focus group meetings.

Results of the consultations in each province were collated by the Alberta Institute legal counsel and the working group met again by teleconference in September to finalize the policy recommendations which were presented at the first conference of the Canadian Centre for Elder Law Studies in October 2005, in Vancouver, B.C. Sandra Phillips participated as a panelist, along with other members of the working group, at the workshop on enduring powers of attorney reform. Preparation of the final report has been delayed as Ms. Pearson is on maternity leave.

B. Private Title Insurance

After Alberta withdrew from the project due to differing priorities, the Saskatchewan and Manitoba Law Reform Commissions jointly issued a consultation paper in June 2005. Eighteen written submissions were submitted and we have now retained Jonathan Penner, an independent researcher, to prepare a draft report in consultation with our legal counsel, Sandra Phillips and with Michael Finley, Director of Research for the Saskatchewan Law Reform Commission. Once completed, the draft report will be considered by both commissions prior to the issuance of the final report.

C. Development Schemes

The Commission is considering amendments to The Real Property Act to allow the owner or owners of two or more parcels of land to register a scheme of building restrictions by unilateral declaration. The proposed amendment was initially suggested by Mr. Edward (Ned) D. Brown, a member of the practising bar in Winnipeg. We wish to thank Mr. Brown and the staff of the Property Registry for their assistance during this project and, in particular, Registrar General and Chief Operating Officer, Richard Wilson, Deputy Registrar General and District Registrar of the Winnipeg Land Titles Office, Barry Effler and Senior Deputy District Registrar of the Winnipeg Land Titles Office, Russell Davidson.

A draft report was approved in principle by the members at their meeting in late March and the final report is expected in June 2006.

D. The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act Review

In 2004, the Registrar General of The Property Registry brought to our attention a possible conflict which has arisen between section 4 of The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act and section 81 of The Real Property Act with respect to the entry of a trust on the land titles register. This occurred as a result of the implementation of an earlier recommendation in our Report on The Trust Provisions in The Perpetuities and Accumulations Act.<sup>2</sup> Unfortunately, due to lack of resources and priority of other projects, the project has been put on hold.

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

1. THE COMMISSIONERS

The current members of the Commission and their terms of office are as follows:

Commissioner	Affiliation	Term expires
Clifford H.C. Edwards	Dean Emeritus, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba	May 9, 2002
John C. Irvine	Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba	August 20, 2006
Gerald O. Jewers	Justice, Court of Queen's Bench	May 9, 2002
Kathleen C. Murphy	Practising lawyer	August 20, 2006
Alice R. Krueger	Lay member	April 3, 2005

The terms of office of Prof. Edwards, Mr. Justice Jewers and Ms Krueger continue in force until new appointments have been made or their terms have been extended through Order in Council.

In our last Annual Report we stated that Prof. Edwards, President of the Commission, submitted his resignation effective June 30, 2005. However, as that date quickly approached, it became obvious that an appointment would not be forthcoming. He therefore agreed to continue serving until a new chair had been appointed and extended his resignation date to March 31st. We can only hope that an appointment will be forthcoming in the very near future.

During the past year, the Commission held 10 regular meetings and the President has met with the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, the President of the Manitoba Law Foundation and the Dean of the Faculty of Law, on several occasions.

2. STAFF

As noted above, Suzanne Pelletier officially retired as the Commission's Administrator on March 31st, 2006.

However, the Commission was fortunate in retaining Debra Floyd to replace Suzanne as the Commission's Administrator on February 1st, 2006. With over 20 years of experience in the Department of Justice, having worked in programs dealing with victim/witness assistance, compensation for victims of crime, women's advocacy, community and youth corrections, as well as in the Assistant Deputy Minister's and the Crown Attorneys' offices, has made for a very smooth transition. Debra will be working on a part-time basis and we look forward to working with her in the future.

Sandra Phillips, our Legal Counsel, is engaged full time. Her main focus has been on the Private Title Insurance project, acting as liaison between us the Saskatchewan Commission and our outside consultant, Jonathan Penner. She also acts as liaison with the Western Canadian Law Reform Consortium on the powers of attorney project. As well, she is preparing the final report on development schemes.

We were also fortunate in retaining Sandra DiCurzio to assist our Legal Counsel on various projects. Her duties included acting as Recording Secretary for special meetings and bluebooking footnotes in projects nearing completion.

During the summer months, we retained Michael Bodner, a law graduate from the Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba, who assisted us in the completion of the report on garnishment as well as the consultation paper on private title insurance. Mr. Bodner left us in September to clerk for Justice Eleanor Dawson, a judge of the Federal Court of Canada and former member of our Commission.

3. CONSULTANTS

We wish to take this opportunity of offering our thanks to Prof. Philip Osborne of the Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba, and Mr. Jonathan Penner, an independent researcher, and acknowledge their expert assistance on the substitute consent to health care project. Needless to say, both Prof. Osborne and Mr. Penner have been our saving grace especially since our near demise in 1997. Prof. Osborne has been engaged on several Commission projects over the past several years including privity of contract, pre-contractual misstatements, minors' consent to health care, compensation for vaccine-damaged children, good faith and the individual contract of employment, to name but a few. Mr. Penner has also provided much needed assistance on projects dealing with small claims, class proceedings, conflict of interest, informal assessment of competence, substitute consent to health care and costs awards. He has now been retained to assist in the completion of our project on private title insurance. We wish to thank both Prof. Osborne and Mr. Penner for their continued support of the Commission's work.

As noted above, Messrs. James Edmond and Sacha Paul continued to provide us with their input on the garnishment project until its submission to the Minister, for which we are most grateful. We also wish to thank Mr. Edward Brown, practising lawyer, and Messrs. Richard Wilson, Barry Effler and Russell Davidson, of Land Titles, who continue to work with us on our projects on development schemes and private title insurance.

Also, as noted above, we wish to thank Joan MacPhail Q.C. and Sharyl Thomas of the Family Law Branch, Marjorie Webb and Sean Boyd of the Civil Litigation Branch, Edward Haluschak, Provincial Registrar of the Court of Queen's Bench and Darlene Baker, Darlene Baker, Director of the Maintenance Enforcement for their input on the garnishment project.

4. FINANCE

As will be seen from Appendix A, our financial position has improved over the past year. We wish to thank both the Department of Justice and the Manitoba Law Foundation for their continued support of our work.

5. PUBLIC RELATIONS

In May 2005, Ms Phillips and Ms Pelletier attended a law reform workshop in Kananaskis, Alberta, sponsored by the Federation of Law Reform Agencies of Canada (FOLRAC). The only cost incurred by the Commission was for air transportation. The remainder of the costs were subsidized by the Law Commission of Canada and the Alberta Law Reform Institute. This workshop provided the participants with the opportunity to explore differences, commonalities and possible opportunities for collaboration. Reference can be made to an article by Mary Bowen, Administrator with the Law Reform Commission of Nova Scotia, which appeared in The Lawyers Weekly on July 8, 2005, which provides an overview of the two-day workshop.<sup>3</sup>

What emerged in workshop meetings was the members' continuing will to represent the people of their provinces ... by ongoing examination of the laws and recommendation to lawmakers for change. ... [S]uccessful law reform requires an interested public, a willing government and skilled professionals knowledgeable in the law, [the question is] how do we bring these players to the table?

In the final analysis, it was agreed that the workshop was a success, providing participants with the opportunity to meet other people involved in law reform and to discuss commonalities as well as differences in approach. Network building, exchanging of ideas, mentoring also proved to be of great value.

<sup>3</sup>M. Bowen, Comment: It was Kananaskis country for FOLRAC, The Lawyers Weekly (July 8, 2005) 3.

In September, Sandra met with members of the Protection for Persons in Care Office to discuss the joint project on enduring powers of attorney. In October, she participated as a panellist at the Canadian Centre for Elder Law Studies conference in Vancouver.

The release of our reports on costs awards and garnishment resulted in interviews on CJOB radio as well as articles in the Winnipeg Free Press in October 2005 and February 2006.

PART IV

CONCLUSION

We are again grateful to the Manitoba Law Foundation for its continued support of the Commission work and to the Department of Justice for increasing its funding for this year which resulted in a matching grant with that of the Foundation.

We wish to thank the staff of the Department of Justice, the Faculty of Law, Provincial Archives and Legislative libraries, and the staff of the Property Registry (Land Titles Office) for their assistance over the past year.

We also wish to thank the Deputy Minister, Mr. Ron Perozzo and his predecessor, Mr. Bruce MacFarlane, as well as Mary Miles who have been most helpful in providing a liaison between the Commission and the Minister in the last year.

And finally, we wish to thank the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, Hon. Gord Mackintosh, for his continued support.

This is a report pursuant to section 15 of The Law Reform Commission Act, C.C.S.M. L95, dated this 31st day of March 2006.

<sup>1</sup>After many years of requesting that the Department provide at least a matching grant to that of the Manitoba Law Foundation, this year's increase of $15,000 has finally reached that objective. The $85,000 grant coupled with $15,000 in-kind services provided by the Department of Justice for accounting services and office accommodation, brings the total grant from the Province to $100,000.

<sup>2</sup>This includes an honorarium of $10,000 paid to the President in recognition of his many years of service to the Commission.

<sup>3</sup>This figure represents administration fees for both Suzanne Pelletier and Debra Floyd during the months of February and March 2006 as well as the paid out vacation and severance paid to Suzanne on her retirement at the end of March 2006.

<sup>4</sup>As noted in previous reports, we carry forward a balance of at least $25,000 each year as the last installment payment from the Manitoba Law Foundation is not received until March 31st each year. The remaining $15,000 represents the outstanding amount of our consultancy contract on the Private Title Insurance project.
